

IMPORTANT: To exit the course player, always use the close button in the upper right corner of the course player. This protocol must be followed in order to ensure your progress through the course is saved.

When you close this document, you will be able to start the course. Use the Return button in the lower left of the screen to return to the course syllabus and launch the course.

